Event- Story Telling Programme on Kargil Diwas

Venue- Google Meet (online)

Time- 9.00 am

Participant- 9

Introduction: The day is named after the successful Operation Vijay in 1999, when India regained the control of the high outposts which had been stealthily taken over by Pakistan. The Indian Armed Forces defeated Pakistan on July 26, 1999. Since then, the day is celebrated as 'Kargil Vijay Diwas' to rekindle the pride and valour of the soldiers who took part in Operation Vijay.

Objective:

- To pay tribute to the brave soldiers who laid down their lives in the line of duty.
- Create a patriotic feeling among the students.
- To evoke feelings of nationalism and patriotism through nationwide campaigns amongst the students.

On 26th July 2020, Modern College of commerce and computer studies arranged a Story telling Programme on Kargil Diwas amid the pandemic situation to boost student's moral. To commemorate our national heroes who lost their life in fighting with our enemies in kargil, we normally celebrate this kargil diwas on this day. To create a positive mindset among the students the college had arranged this programme at the time covid. Total 9 students were joined on this event. Prof. Prasaana Chavan started the story telling programme and told the historic story which had increased the morale of students at the time of pandemic.

Outcome:

- Students got to know what had happened in 26th July 1999.
- Students took oath to protect our mother India from the outside enemy.
- Students were happy to participate in such a beautiful patriotic programme.

Event: Slogan Competition on " Labour (Child) Awareness"

Date: 15th Nov 2021

Time: 10:30 am

Venue: Classroom -5

Introduction: Children need Love and Care, child labour is not Fair. Let the child earn Knowledge, not Money. Raise your Voice and Hand so that child labour can be Banned. Childhood means Learning, not Earning.

Objective of the Event:

Children are the future of these countries, and they must be provided education rather than used for hard labor. To grow as a nation, it is our utmost responsibility to take care of the less fortunate ones and make it a point that the laws are being implemented and no child below the age of 18 does any hard labor. We need to get out of our houses and fight for these kids.

Some Slogans are:

- Child labour is a social crime.
- Children are our future, let them grow
- A happy child makes a country happy.
- Enough is enough, stop child labour.
- Raise your hand to get child labour banned.
- Say no to child labour and yes to education.

Total Number of Participants: 5

Outcomes: This program helped highlight and sensitise students towards the terrible practice of child labour.

Event: PPT Competition on "Water Conservation"

Date: 24/07/2021

Time: 10.00 Am

Venue: Virtual mode

Introduction:

The practice of conserving water involves using it wisely to cut down on wasteful water use. Water conservation is crucial, says Fresh Water Watch, because clean, fresh water is a scarce and expensive resource. Therefore, the idea of "save water and save a life" is at the centre of water conservation. This competition will be helpful to create awareness regarding Water conservation.

Objective of the Event:

- Students will be aware about water conservation.
- Students will be known the importance of water conservation.

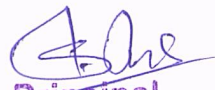

About Event:

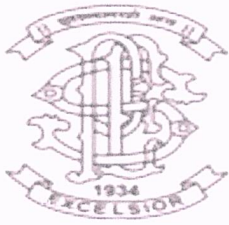

Saving water reduces energy use. Your home needs energy to filter, heat, and pump water, so conserving water also lowers your carbon impact. Utilizing less water helps keep more in our ecosystems and maintains the habitats of fish, herons, water voles, and otters in wetlands. So MCCCOS organized Virtual PPT Competition on "Water Conservation". Competition is organized by Dr. Dinakar Chavan. Winner of the competition is Kanadi Prerna Arjun.

Total Number of Participants: 7

Outcomes: This activity will create awareness among students regarding essential of water. This activity will be useful to protect drinking water resources, maintain the health of aquatic environment.

Introduction: The number of mobile applications we have seen over the years is tremendous for every small purpose; there is a mobile application. The apps have been serviceable in people's lives and help them to grow.

Objective of the Event:

- to awareness about new launched mobile software
- to focus heavily on how technology is transforming the higher ed teaching and learning

Due to Pandemic situation The College has organised an online session on Awareness about latest launched mobile software on the occasion of National Technology Day, in this session our expert and some of students put their views, most students entering college today are accustomed to a mobile, app driven world one where they manage much of their lives on their phones. That's why higher education institutions continue to increase their investment in mobile apps and in digital services they believe will create deeper connections with students.

The media tends to focus heavily on how technology is transforming the higher ed teaching and learning. However, when asked about how technology is improving their campus experience, the students we interviewed often mentioned basic tools for navigating between classes, administrative offices, and events.

Awareness about latest launched mobile software on National Technology Day

Total Number of Participants: 10

Outcomes: It is pretty helpful and practically acknowledged in the world of mobile applications.

Event: “प्रश्नमंजूषा स्पर्धा” on the occasion of Water Day

Date: 22th March 2019

Time : 11.00 am

Venue: Classroom-7

World Water Day is a reminder of the importance of water for our planet and all its inhabitants. Let us take action to ensure the sustainable management of this precious resource, so that future generations can enjoy clean and safe water. World Water Day highlights the importance of water and its conservation.

Water is very important for your body

Water travels throughout your body carrying nutrients, oxygen, and wastes to and from your cells and organs. Water keeps your body cool as part of your body's temperature regulating system. Water cushions your joints, and protects your tissues and organs from shock and damage.

Modern College of Commerce & Computer Studies was celebrating World Water Day with great enthusiasm and excitement. Water Day is celebrated in different ways throughout the country. All plants and animals need water to survive. If there was no water there would be no life on earth.

In the Competition 3 students participated. NAIR RAHUL GOPALAN won the competition. Competition was energetically done by participants.

Event- Quiz competition on Kargil Diwas

Venue- Seminar hall Time- 9.00 am Participant- 12

Introduction: The Kargil War was a turning point in the history of India's military operations. It taught the Indian Army several lessons, including the need for better intelligence, better equipment, and the importance of the air force in high-altitude warfare. The war also highlighted the need for better coordination between various branches of the armed forces.

Objective:

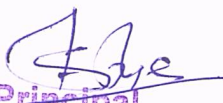

- To pay tribute to the brave soldiers who laid down their lives in the line of duty.
- Create a patriotic feeling among the students.

Modern College of commerce and computer studies arranged a quiz competition on our Mother India's historic victory over Pakistan at kargil in ladakh on 26th July 2018. To commemorate our national heroes who lost their life in fighting with our enemies in kargil, we normally celebrate this kargil diwas on this day. To create a patriotic feeling among the students the college had arranged this programme. Total 12 students were participated on this event. Neha Iyengar from F.Y BBA (CA) won the competition. The college had felicitated her after the event.

Outcome:

- Students got to know what had happened in 26th July 1999.
- Students took oath to protect our mother India from the outside enemy.

Event: Poster Making Competition : "Varkari Sampradaya"

Date: 24th July 2018

Time: 10:00 am

Venue: Classroom -7

Introduction: Posters can be a highly effective means of advertising and promoting a product, service or event. They are a visual medium that can quickly capture the attention of a target audience, convey key information, and leave a lasting impression.

The Warkari tradition has been part of Hindu culture in Maharashtra since the thirteenth-century CE. The Warkari tradition regards these saints to have a common spiritual line of descent. The Warkaris wear tulsi-mala, a rosary made from the wood of the sacred Tulsi plant. The Warkari men may be known by their three upright brow lines, a black between two white gopi chandan or white clay and sandal-paste lines which is also popular with other Vaishnavite devotees.

Total 4 Students participated in the competition . There was one winner in the competition. All participants make very attractive and creative posters.
